Thank you for your participation in Polo on the Midway. Proceeds from this event will go to benefit Bryan's House, a non profit organization that provides special care to children, youth and their families affected by HIV/AIDS. By participating in this event and making a donation, you become a hero to hundreds of children and their families. Ultimately, our goal is to enlightenment this community of the plight of HIV/AIDS in the lives of children and adolescents. Your support will enable Bryan's House to continue to enrich the lives of these children by providing education, medically-managed childcare, and social services.
